Over the past 7 years, the Still Kick'n band has been entertaining country music fans in central Illinois as well as Indiana and Wisconsin playing a combination of today's top country hits as well as some of the all-time country favorites. It's the band's mission to bring a high-energy show to country music fans all across Central Illinois and to share the big stage with the national country artists!

The SK band consists of seven very talented musicians including a fiddle, mandolin, steel guitar, electric guitar, acoustic guitar, keyboards, bass, and drums. The band also prides itself on their harmonies that creates a very rich country sound.

Still Kick'n

Kelsey Hickman fronts the Still Kick'n band. She has won numerous singing competitions as well as had her debut opening for Lady Antebellum at the 2009 Sangamon County Fair. Kelsey brings a flare to the stage as well as her connection with the audience.

Pat McCue is the band leader for Still Kick'n. He also shares the front of the stage with Kelsey Hickman as the two energize the crowds with their entertaining interaction and harmonies! Pat also plays acoustic guitar and keyboards. He had his debut playing keyboards with an opening band for Montgomery Gentry at the 2003 Illinois State Fair.

Joe Kath is an exciting entertainer and musician. He is classically trained on the violin and you can definitely tell by the way he makes playing the fiddle look so easy! For the Still Kick'n band, Joe plays fiddle, mandolin, and acoustic guitar. He also plays with a Springfield-based celtic band called "Emerald Underground".

Donny Hinkle is known as one of Springfield's finest guitar players. He's also one of the few steel guitar players in central Illinois. Donny has played in the Springfield area for over twenty five years.

Jen Campbell is the newest member of the Still Kick'n band. Jen has spent most of her career singing in honkytonks in central Illinois as well as opening for major acts in Taylorville, Illinois at "Nashville North". Jen sings backup vocals, acoustic guitar, and keyboards.

John Peters is the bass player for Still Kick'n. He has over 30 years of experience on bass. John also sings harmonies for the band.

Bill Wikoff plays drums for Still Kick'n He joined the band in 2011 after a couple of years playing in other local country and jazz bands. Bill also spent six years playing drums in Nashville at some of the local clubs.
